

I am writing today about a consideration from the FCC to allow LPFM stations to take priority over established stations. I have listened to Airl from St. Cloud for over a year (since I moved in). It is a significant part of our day. Please reconsider. I don't want to lose the ability to hear this station. Sincerely, Patricia Picone